Member Responsibilities

1. Teamwork is an important aspect of being a Board, Commission or Committee member. You are a TEAM not a group of individuals.
2. Boards, Commissions and Committees must be accountable for their conduct. Ethics begin with individual members.
3. Come prepared to contribute to the discussion of issues and business to be addressed at scheduled meetings.
4. Represent the organization in a positive and supportive manner at all times and in all places and to support all actions taken even when in a minority position on such actions.
5. Work with and respect the opinion of peers who serve with you and leave personal prejudices out of discussions.
6. Refrain from intruding on administrative issues that are the responsibility of management, except to monitor the results.
7. Avoid conflicts of interest between your position and your personal life and declare a conflict and refrain from voting on matters in which a conflict exists.
8. Respectful workplace behavior shall be exhibited at all times towards all elected officials, appointed officials, commissioners, and city employees.

Certification and Authorization

By signing below, I acknowledge that I am aware and agree to the prohibitions of the City of Gun Barrel City Charter and the laws of the State of Texas regarding nepotism and conflicts of interest of appointees to City boards, commissions, and committees. I certify that if appointed I shall not have any delinquent indebtedness to the City or County during my term. I understand that the number of positions on a given board, commission, or committee is limited and that I may not be appointed. I also certify that the information given by me in this application is true and correct and any false information or misrepresentation is sufficient grounds for disqualification. I authorize the City of Gun Barrel City to verify all information provided in this application. In accordance with Section 552 of the Local Government Code, I understand that information provided in this application may be available to the public upon request.
